

Mini Caravan

EXPLORE DC LIKE A LOCAL
MINI ITINERARY

KIDS HALLOWEEN IN CAPITOL HILL

WWW.CURIOUS-CARAVAN.COM

CREATIVE HALLOWEEN FUN

Get into the Halloween spirit with seasonal pottery painting at All Fired Up (Capitol Hill). Choose from a variety of figurines including ghosts, pumpkins and skeletons.

@allfiredupdc

Photo: All Fired Up

2

SCARY GOOD TREATS

Treat the kiddos (and yourself!) to some spooky Halloween treats and pumpkin-spice desserts at Firehook Bakery. Or pick up a decorate-your-own cookie kit to take home. The bakery shares space with All Fired Up, so you don't have far to go.

@firehooklocal

Photo: Firehook Bakery

3

LUNCHTIME

Take a short walk and grab a slice (or two!) pizza or wings and a glass of homemade soda at We, the Pizza.

@wethepizza

WE, THE PIZZA

Photo: We, the Pizza

BONUS EXTRA

Take a walk on the (not so) creepy side. The Capitol Hill Community Foundation's Pumpkin Walk is a self-guided tour of book-themed pumpkins and scarecrows across the neighborhood, so make time to explore if you and the littles are up to it!

Photo: Capitol Hill Community Foundation

4

MOVIES THAT GO BUMP IN THE NIGHT

Get the kiddos (costumes optional!) and drive to the Park Up DC drive-in theatre for Halloween SZN. Titles include: Hocus Pocus, The Nightmare Before Christmas and BeetleJuice. Bring a flashlight in case anyone gets spooked.

@ParkUp

Disney

HOCUS POCUS

Photo: Disney

1

Get creative with some Halloween-themed pottery painting at All Fired Up.

2

Just steps away, pick up some spooky treats and desserts at Firehook Bakery.

3

Next, have lunch at We, the Pizza.

Enjoy Capitol Hill Community Foundation's pumpkin walk.

4

After some downtime, end the day with Halloween movies at the Park Up DC drive-in theatre.

www.curious-caravan.com